

CHENANGO RIVER THEATRE

Dear Supporters & Friends,

We can't thank you enough for all of your support in making our 2024 season another outstanding success. Between the main stage productions and One Night Stand series, we were able to entertain over 4000 fans of live theatre, including our world premiere staging of Craig Johnson's adaptation of Shakespeare's Macbeth.

Every fall, we ask you to remember Chenango River Theatre as you make your year-end tax-deductible donations. Balancing the books for a small non-profit theatre is always tough. We rely on sponsors, advertisers, and donors to continue bringing you the best live theatre in the area. We would be nowhere without the tremendous support of our patrons and donors in our community, but that doesn't mean we don't still need help to continue growing and improving.

Producing our season each year is our contribution to this community - in Greene and the surrounding areas of the Southern Tier. As the only professional theatre in the area, we made a commitment 17 years ago to produce the highest quality work in the region. We do this by bringing in incredibly talented performers, directors, and designers from all over the country, but we can't do that without your help. We have already begun preparations for the 2025 season, and your donations go directly towards making that season a reality. Whether you're a new supporter, a long-time patron, or somewhere in between, we need you. All too often people think that a small donation won't make a difference, but you couldn't be more mistaken. Every donation helps, no matter the size.

As one door closes, another opens. We all have been fortunate to have the great leadership of Zach Curtis (Producing Artistic Director) over the past three years to bring us fantastic shows that were new to the area. Help Zach cap a great final season with this Fall Appeal as we begin a new chapter at CRT with Paige Tripp (Executive Director) and Drew Kahl (Artistic Director) at the helm for 2025. Please join us in making a personal commitment to keeping Chenango River Theatre producing outstanding theatre. And feel proud that you will be one of those that helps us continue to create something that so many people in this area enjoy seeing.

With thanks for your continued support,

Chenango River Theatre Board of Directors

Kevin Cooper, Rich Doud, Dori May Ganisin, James Hargrave, Suzanne Holwitt, Jennifer Johnson, Laura Knochen-Davis, Gabrielle Montanez, Cynthia Rotella, Jason Tripp, and Heidi Weeks
